

14 July, 1884.

Dear Garrison,

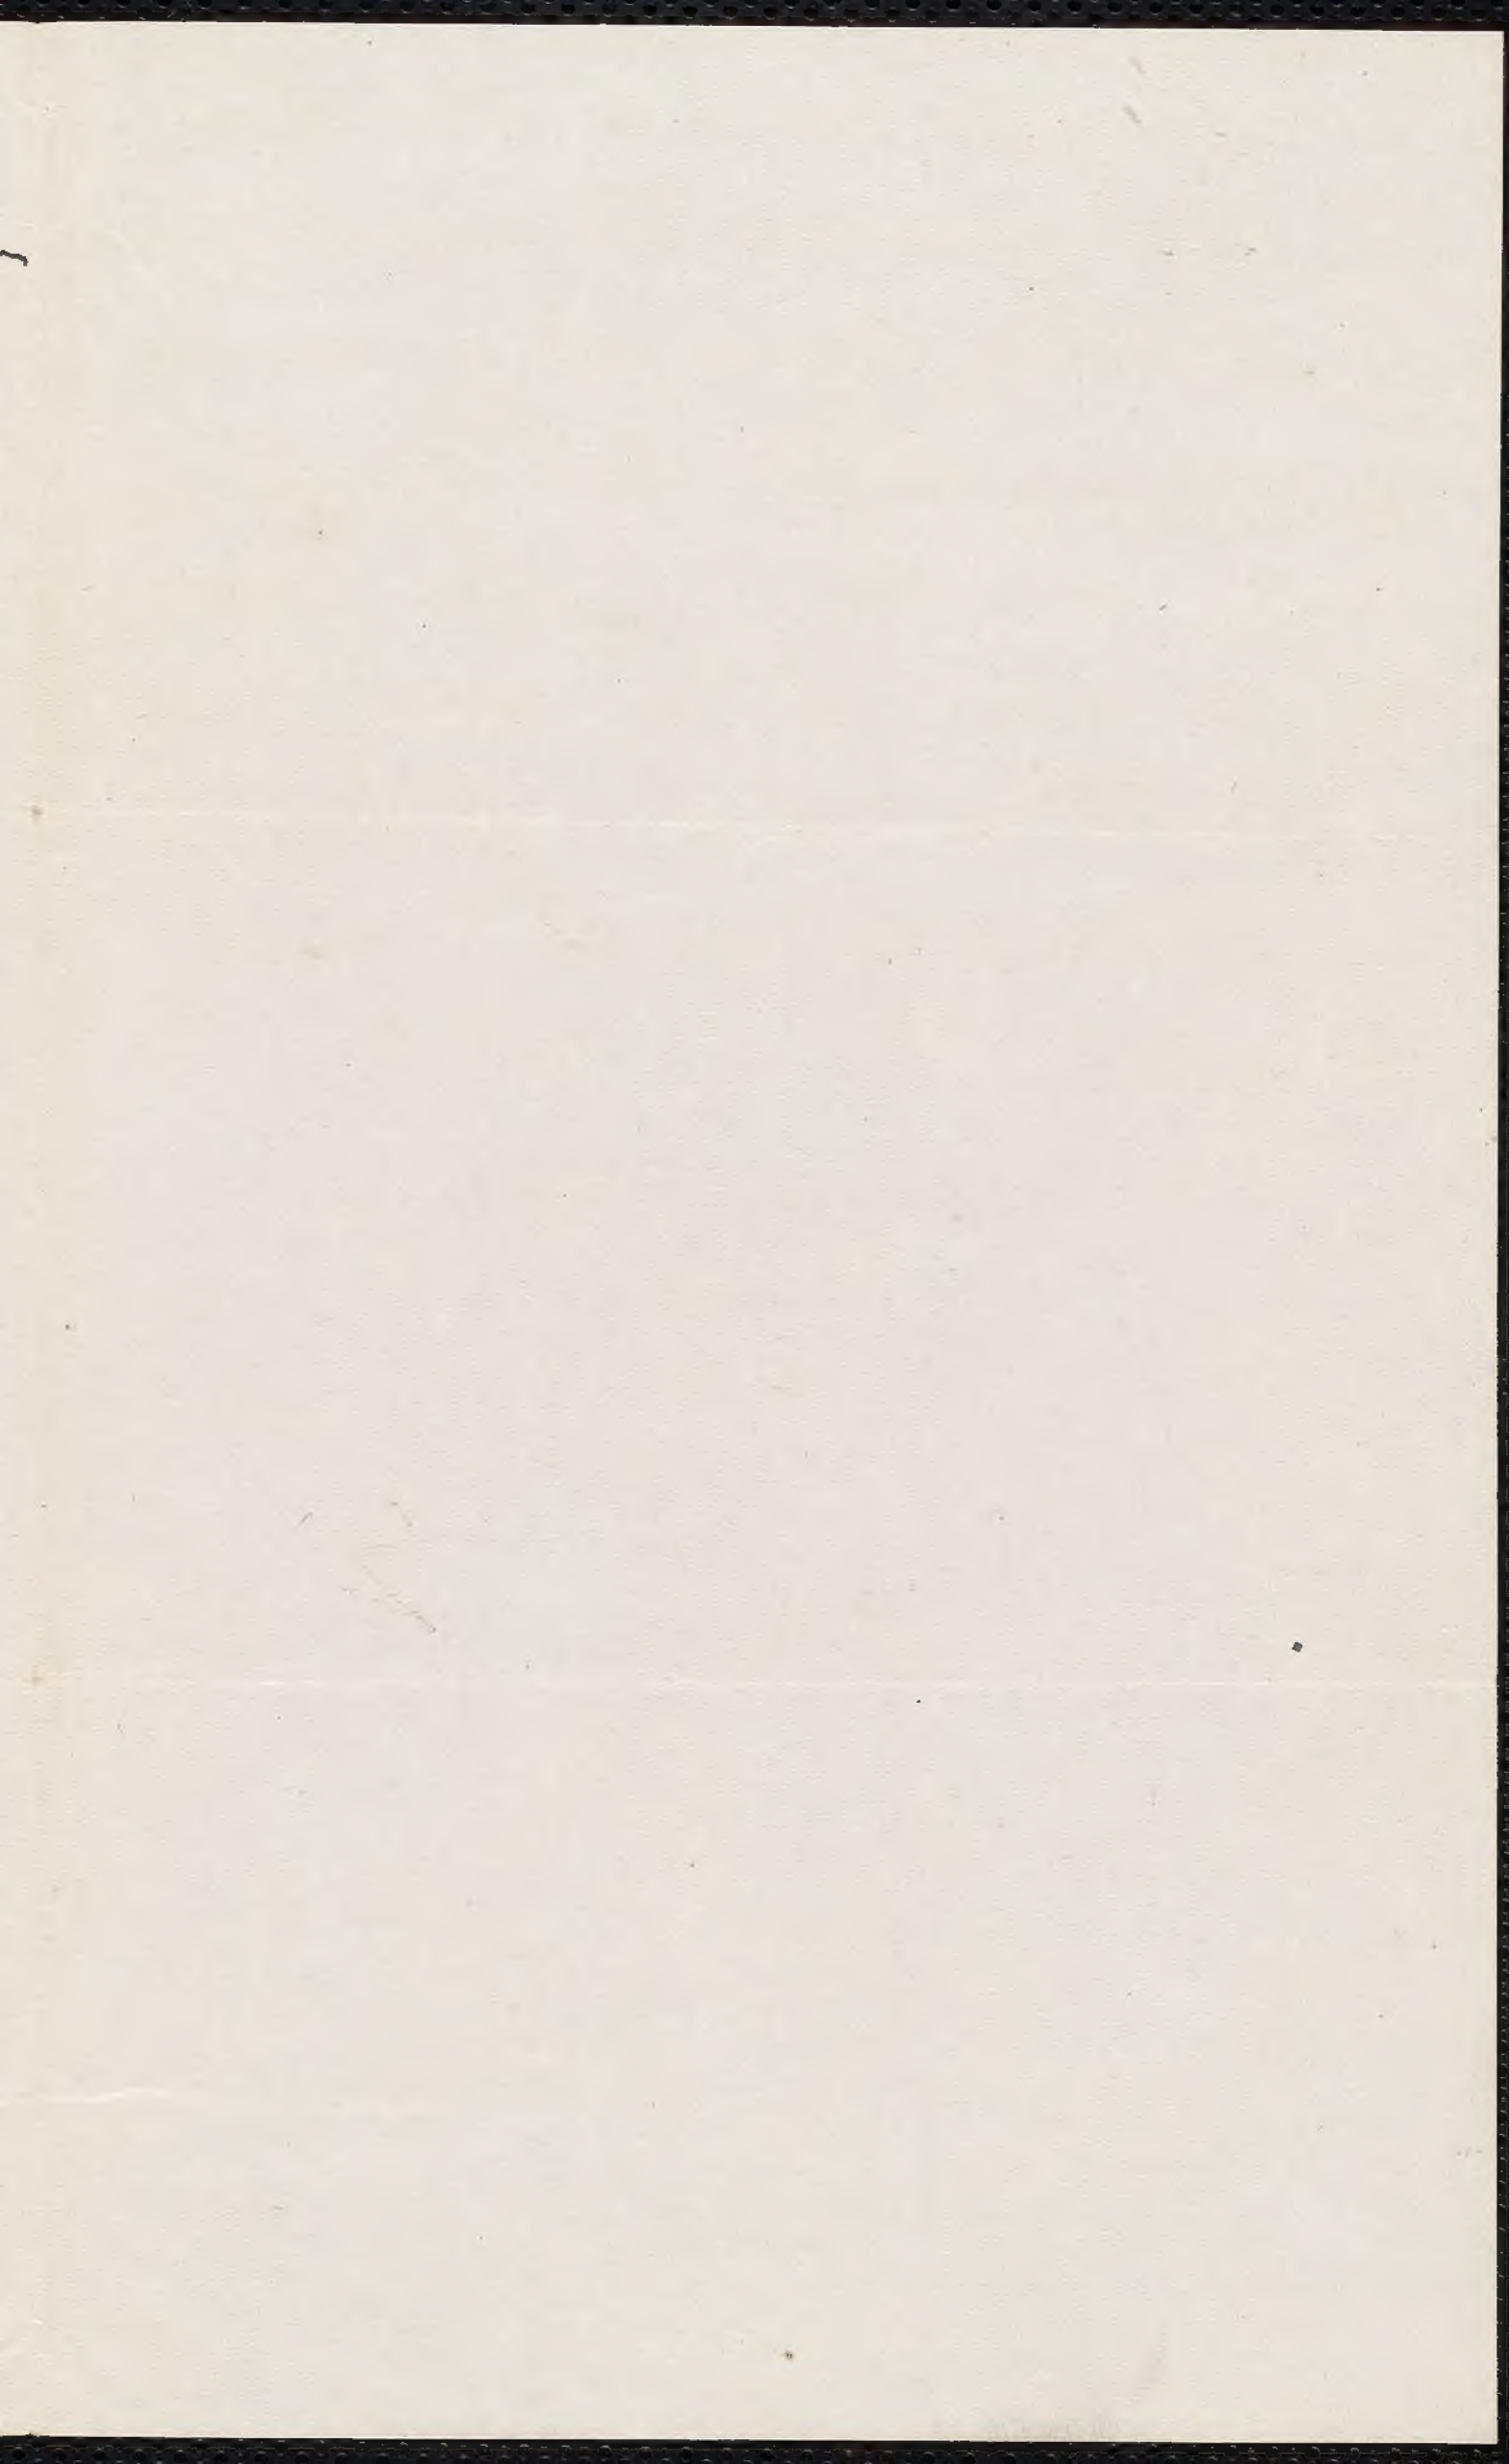

75- I have "stuffed" the printers with copy for next week's paper, and am going to Providence to-night with Mary Anne, for a brief visit to our friends Paulina and Thomas Davis. I know not what plans they may have formed for us, but I am not without hope that I may see Boston before I return. I must be home, at the very latest, by Wednesday morning, to put the paper to press; but perhaps I may run up to see you Monday or Tuesday, though it is not by any means certain. If you are to be absent, let me know, as I should not think of going in that case.

Could I go out to Weymouth (from Boston) Tuesday morning, have a few hours with Mrs. Chapman, and reach the Fall River Steamboat train of that evening at some station not far off - say Braintree; or should I have to return to Boston?

Yours, faithfully,

Oliver Johnson

C. J. M. Y. July 4, 1859.

14 10 11